SATURDAY, JUNE 1, 1878.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

W. B. Helliogs will leave San Francisco this evening for Phenix.

A. Goldman has constructed a large corral in the rear of his store. Sanborn's teams passed Burke's Thursday for Phenix.

C. H. Gray has sold lot 18, block 24, fronting on the Plaza, to A. Bolan, for $150.

To drink $130 worth of wine in one evening is considerable. To be sure. Of course.

Religious services to-morrow evening in the new church building, by Rev. Alex. Graves.

James Cunningham writes us that Wm. Costello did not die of alcoholism, as stated.

The building formerly occupied by I. R. Birt, has been secured by Charlie Brinson.

Phenix now has five saloons, with a prospect of two more starting inside of ten days.

J. M. Cotton was unloading a large lot of liquor yesterday, that arrived by Dennis & Murphy.

A coffee and lunch room is being opened by A. M. James & Co., in connection with their bakery.

Dennis & Murphy and Lutgerding's teams arrived yesterday from Yuma, with goods for various Phenix people.

The latest arrival in the way of quartz mills is the one for the Golden Star mine. The first ten tons of it came in on Thursday, and it is all likely to get here by the end of next week. -Sentinel.

Craig & Co. left Yuma May 24th with 22,000 for Anders & Rowe Gillett. Engaged left on the 24th with the Golden Star 10,000, 6,200 pounds. Shook on the 25th with 10,000, and Dickoy on the 26th with about the same load of Golden Star machinery.

The other evening, as Mr. Shaw was indulging in a game of baseball, he tried to catch the ball with the tips of his fingers. Result - broken finger; and no more fun for poor uncle E. for at least two months to come.

The examination of J. W. Swilling and Andy Kirby, of Gillett, charged with robbing the stage near Wickenburg in this county, was going on before H. H. Carter, U. S. Court Commissioner, during the early part of the week.

Anders & Rowe got a dispatch from Yuma today informing them of the shipment by Barney to them direct to Gillett, on mule teams over the Gila and Salt river route, of 49,000 pounds of freight. Mr. Rowe informs us that goods average quicker time by team from Yuma than to take the uncertain chances of loading to Ehrenberg.

Miner May 25th: Two loads of lumber from Curtis' mill, consisting of battery blocks, battery frame timbers, building lumber, etc., passed through Prescott, Friday, May 24th, on the way to the Golden Star mine at Cave Creek. Clinton has the contract for delivering it at its destination, and is doing so with ox teams.

The little 3-stamp prospect's mill we spoke of a few weeks since, has been received from Wickenburg. Upon the arrival of a box of building, shipped by mistake to Prescott, it will be put up by the Maricopa ditch, and start on 15 tons of ore from the Desert mines. The ore will work $95. F. A. Shaw & Co., own the ore and mill.

There was a jolly dance at Parker's Station, on the new route to Yuma, on Monday night last. Dennis & Murphy's train concluded to celebrate the opening of the road, and Bob McFall, the senior driver, acted as floor manager. Don Ygnacio Miranda furnished the music. The ladies were in elaborate costume, and the fun was kept up until found day appeared in the rosy east.

The Roundy-Parker wedding at the Pavilion, on Wednesday evening, was a perfect gem; about 200 people being present. Everybody with his wife, or somebody else's sister, was there, the outer circle being composed of to-be-old bachelors, Mexicans and Indians. The bride was radiant, the groom jubilant. Rev. I. H. Cox, who performed the ceremony, was venerable in his clerical white coker and surplice. The dancing continued until 2 A. M., when the party treated the happy couple to a serenade, and left them to their dream of love.

Mrs. Veil has been very ill during the past week.

The Maricopa Library Association will hold a meeting next Wednesday evening at the school house.

The harvest season is now in full blast. Everybody is busy and full of life.

E. Irvine has rented his building north of the stage office, to Ira Stroud, whose family left Yuma for this place a week ago.

"Six months ago I knew everybody, but now I don't know a single one," is a remark we have heard twenty times during the past week.

Charlie Goldman from Tempe, Sam Weir from Gillett, and Armstrong from the Capital, have been among our many new arrivals during the past week.

The Southern Pacific Stage Company yesterday purchased 250,000 pounds of grain at $2.75 delivered. The contractor requested us not to publish his name, as it was no one's business.

A building is being erected next the new hall of Woolsey & Wentworth for a wholesale liquor establishment. F. M. Fowler is also constructing a new building in front of his old market. Upon the completion of the building adjoining the Phenix brewery, it will be converted into a card and reading room.

R. Armstrong, the fruit and tree man, arrived yesterday from Prescott, and will remain in town several days canvassing for orders. His last lot of trees, shrubbery and flowers were delivered in excellent condition, and nothing but good reports have been heard from them. He has made quite a reduction in his prices. He would also like to have our farmers examine his offering. For $200 he will furnish enough trees to surround a quarter section, that will turn stock the second year.

Freight Notes.

The following Phenix freight arrived at Yuma since last report:

May 18; B & M, 5; A & Ellis, 21 bags and twine; E A C, 1 pane; Golden Star, 23 powder and fuse. 19th - Parrella, 55 liquor and mule. 20th - F A S, 4 saddlery; Mrs I R B, 1 millinery; A & E, 80 groceries; E I & Co, 1 glass. 23d. - Golden Star mine, 54 machinery; M Brangart, 1 brandy; Lutgerding, 1 buggy-top. 24th - Golden Star mill, 70 machinery; Goldman, 1 fuse; Brangart, 29 mah, 1 whisky; A & E, 4 syrup.

Telegraphic Changes.

During the past week considerable change has taken place in our telegraphic office. Mr. I. R. Birt, who has had charge of this office, left by private conveyance Thursday, and will hereafter manipulate the machine at Camp Verde. Mr. J. W. Harrison, formerly of Camp Grant, and a lightning slinger of much experience, assumes control here. Wm. Baber, now superintending the construction of the loop between here and Maricopa, will learn, have a place in this office upon the completion of his present duties. The office will be moved Monday from the stage office to the building south of the boot and shoe store of T. Olson.

A Daily Mail.

Mr. Kerens, one of the owners, and Wm. Griffith, Superintendent of the Southern Pacific Stage Company, arrived in Phenix from Yuma on Thursday afternoon. A HERALD reporter called on them at the Phenix Hotel yesterday morning, and found Mr. Kerens an affable and very intelligent gentleman, up to his eyes in business. This is his first visit to Phenix, and he expressed himself well pleased with our valley and town, and our future prospects, and thinks we are much entitled to a daily mail now as any part of Arizona. In his opinion only a short time will elapse before we will get our mails daily, and in a more direct manner than at present. He left yesterday morning for Florence, and from there he will go to Washington.
